CORRESPONDENCE

BLUE.

(last week)

Miss Nellie Pugh is visiting her grandparents and sisters this week.

Some hunters accidentally shot a fine calf for John Floyd the other day.

Mrs. McCarty visited in Pittsburg, Kans., last week.

Mrs. Gearheart went to Joplin on a short visit Monday.

Mrs. Wm. Wardlow and Hester Oline returned from Kansas City Tuesday much improved in health.

John Keltner was very sick, Tuesday, but is up again.

What might of been a serious accident occurred on the way from church Tuesday night. Abbe Hider was driving a heavily loaded wagon of people. About all that could stand up was in his wagon in the dark. He drove too near the edge of a ditch; the earth gave way, upsetting the wagon. Fortunately the coupling pole broke, freeing the horses, which ran when the lines broke. No one was seriously hurt, but Miss Mamie Hatfield fainted from fright. They borrowed Mr. Merius' wagon and went on their way.

Surely the prayers of Christian people have been answered in regard to the revival at Blue. There have been about seventy conversions already and the end is not yet. Meetings will continue over Sunday. The house is crowded to overflowing every night with people from far and near eager to hear every word that falls from the Rev. Jerry Cleveland's lips.

FARMERS' UNION

Mr. and Mrs. Thacker and Mrs. Kyle went to Carthage Tuesday.

Everybody in these parts was called to Carthage this week on the Ray divorce case.

Parties are getting pretty numerous of late.

There was a party at Chas. Woodman's last week.

The dance at Button Garner's Friday night was well attended.

George Baker of Jasper was here Friday on business with Chas. Moore.

There was a surprise party on Orval

Kyle Saturday night to celebrate his 10th birthday. There was a big crowd including a number of Orval's school mates from Jasper.

There was a dig dinner at John Carnes' Thanksgiving day. All of the Mitbells were there, also Frank Carnes, who has just returned from California, where he spent two years. The dinner was in his honor.

Mrs. Griffin of Jasper visited Saturday and Sunday with Miss Vera Kyle. Mrs. Simon is on the sick list.

Ed Moore, who got his foot in a hay press a week ago, is improving slowly. Dr. Knott makes a trip every day to dress the wound.

Mrs. J. E. Hull was over to visit her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Kaderly.

Charles Stanebury and Miss Ruby Ringer were married Monday, and his parents gave a big supper in their honor. The boys gave them a charivari that night.

Orval Kyle will have to take in his shingle as a 'possum' catcher. Jackie Kaderly and George Boston caught 3 in one tree one day last week.

A Real Wonderland

South Dakota, with its rich silver mines, bonanza farms, wide ranges and strange natural formations, is a veritable wonderland. At Mound City, in the home of Mrs. E. D. Clapp, a wonderful case of healing has lately occurred. Her son seemed near death with lung and throat trouble. "Exhausting coughing spells occurred every five minutes," writes Mrs. Clapp, "when I began giving Dr. King's New Discovery, the great medicine, that saved his life and completely cured him." Guaranteed for coughs and colds, throat and lung troubles by Webb Bros. druggist. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

ZION

There was a silver medal contest given at Zion church under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. Thursday night. Pearl Johnson received the medal.

Mary Curtis accompanied by Mae Sanford and Stella Covert went to Springfield Thursday to attend the teachers' institute and contest given at that place. Miss Curtis contested, and altho she did not receive the award she did credit to herself and the school. They returned Saturday evening.

Patsy and Ruth Underhill of Carthage were the guests of their grandfather, Mr. Bender, the latter part of last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Paisley and son, Ohlman, and Geo. Paisley visited with C. A. Covert and family, Thursday afternoon.

Miss Kenny Miller of near Carrytown spent the latter part of last week with her sister, Mrs. Robert Gresham.

Some of our folks are having a hog killing time this week.

The W. C. T. U. all-day meeting held at Zion Saturday was well attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Janney took Thanks giving dinner at Mr. Rumbles'.

Mrs. Lora LaMance spent Friday night at Mr. Ballard's and Saturday night at Mr. Thomas'.

Messrs. Will Guff and Clarence Marsh of Webb City are guests of C. A. Covert this week.

Aletha Armstrong spent Friday night at Mr. Curtis'.

R. D. Bowers and son, James, of Waverly, Mo., is visiting his niece, Mrs. J. F. Curtis.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Reynolds of near Maple Grove spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Wednesday.

A Significant Prayer.

"May the Lord help you make Bucklen's Arnica Salve known to all," writes J. G. Jenkins, of Chapel Hill, N. C. It quickly took the pain out of a felon for me and cured it in a wonderfully short time. Best on earth for sores, burn wounds. 25c at Webb Bros. drug store.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Shephard who came from Battle Creek, Mich., to be present at the funeral of Mr. Shephard's mother, the late Mrs. Mary Shephard, returned home last Tuesday.

Floyd Cole of Albion, Ind., is spending the week with his brother, P. B. Cole, of Jasper. He is on his way to northwest, where he thinks of locating.

Of course you want something extra nice and tender in the way of meat. You can always get it at Crandall Bros.

Get a Fort Smith Wagon

Wagons and Wagons, yes there are lots of them, but you'll not find another as good as the FORT SMITH if you look for a hundred years. In point of sheer strength, light running, and length of service, it hasn't an equal.

5-A Horse Blankets

Don't throw away money on a so-called "cheap" horse blanket. The "5-a" will outlast a dozen of them.

Watch for our Special Announcement Next Week.

It will be of interest to you if you want to save money.

NOT WORTH THE TROUBLE.

Irishman Didn't Want Whole Town Torn Up to Find Watch.

Kid Gleason, of the Philadelphia National league team, was telling his friends a little story on a Hibernian friend. The kid and his friend had attended a boxing bout and when leaving the building the Irishman discovered that his watch was gone. The sergeant of police promised to "leave no stone unturned" in the effort to recover the timepiece. Next day, in walking down street with his friend, Gleason pointed to some men who were engaged in some excavating work. By chance, the sergeant to whom Gleason and the Irishman had reported the loss was watching the men work.

"Great operation, isn't it?" the ball-player asked.

"Yes, it is, indeed. What's it all for?" asked Pat.

"Why, don't you remember that the police sergeant said he would leave no stone unturned to get back your watch? See, there he is now directing the work."

The kid's friend from the old sod was amazed, and, walking up to the sergeant said: "I thank you very much, sergeant, but if you are going to tear up the whole town, let the watch go to the devil. It's not worth the trouble."

FRIEND HELD THE 'PHONE.

Washington Official Got Even for Broken Engagement.

He is a prominent official in the post office department, and his friend, with whom he had missed an engagement, and who had sworn to get even, is prominent in the navy department. About one o'clock the navy department man called up his friend over the telephone.

"Hello, Brown," he said, "please hold the 'phone a minute."

Brown held the 'phone, getting more fidgety all the while. At least three times a minute he was obliged to tell central that he was "waiting." Time rolled on, and he still clung to the receiver though his arm was well-nigh breaking.

Brown was just on the point of hanging up the receiver, when his friend at the navy department dashed into the room.

"Ah, you're still holding the 'phone, I see," he said. "I'm glad of it; for I wanted to catch you here this time, that's all."

And the two officials went across the street to get a lunch.—Washington Post.

He Signed the Pledge.

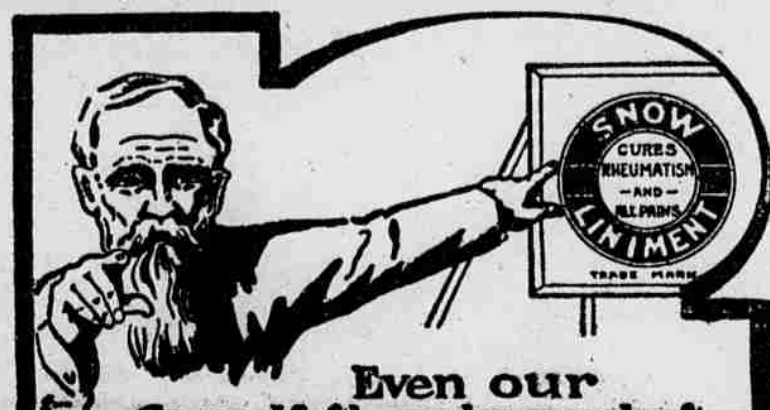

Miss Eva Shonts, sister of Chairman Shonts, of the Panama commission, obtained samples of barrel house rum from Alderman Kenna's place on Clark street, and publicly burned it at a meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union, says the Chicago American.

"I got the tip that she was coming here for booze," said the bartender at Kenna's, "and I sold her a quart mixture of kerosene and beer."

Miss Shonts said she would prove the poison in the liquor by setting it on fire. It exploded, boiled, hissed, turned red, blue and yellow, and then went out with a bang.

Harry Ging, a Chinaman, signed the pledge at once.
